Bristol Bay is one of the last great wild salmon fisheries left in the world, with an average of 40 million sockeye salmon returning to its waters annually. Bristol Bay's salmon fishery is a pillar of the Alaskan seafood industry and has employed Americans for over 130 years. Today, it supplies over 40 percent of the world's sockeye salmon, provides over 14,000 jobs, and generates $1.5 billion in annual economic activity. Crab, halibut, and other species rely on Bristol Bay as a nursery. As a globally recognized sporting destination, the region also draws tens of thousands of anglers and hunters every year. It is truly unmatched in its biological and economic productivity.

For over a decade, Bristol Bay's fishing industry and communities have faced economic uncertainty created by the Pebble Mine project, a massive low-grade ore deposit in a seismically active, wet and porous region at the headwaters of the Bristol Bay watershed. If developed, the Pebble Mine would jeopardize thousands of independent businesses, tens of thousands of jobs, and an economic engine that sustains Alaska's economy. In the event of an accident or environmental disaster, there is no doubt that American taxpayers will bear the costs and the consequences of cleaning up the contamination. Simply put, Pebble Mine is bad for the environment, existing businesses and jobs.

Grundéns has partnered with Dark Seas and B4BB, along with hundreds of other businesses, to express opposition to the proposed Pebble Mine in Bristol Bay, Alaska. We invite you to join us in raising awareness to save Bristol Bay by supporting the product behind the cause and taking the time to visit b4bb.org to see how you can stay involved.

100% of the net profits generated from the sale of the "Save Bristol Bay" product we offer are donated to B4BB. Businesses for Bristol Bay (B4BB) advocates for economic prosperity in the Bristol Bay region and beyond by advancing public policy that provides companies, communities, and individuals with stability and a level playing field. By putting the needs of local businesses that depend on Bristol Bays fisheries first, they can drive responsible economic development in Alaska and the industries that rely on it's resources.

B4BB's first priority is defending and furthering the long term viability and success of the businesses for Bristol Bay network, in particular those that are invested in and dependent on Bristol Bay's fisheries.
