The OBEY campaign can be explained as an experiment in phenomenology. The first aim of phenomenology is to reawaken a sense of wonder about one's environment. The OBEY campaign attempts to stimulate curiosity and bring people to question both the campaign and their relationship with their surroundings. Because people are not used to seeing advertisements or propaganda for which the motive is not obvious, frequent and novel encounters with OBEY propaganda provoke thought and possible frustration, nevertheless revitalizing the viewer's perception and attention to detail. To catalyze a thoughtful dialogue deconstructing the process of image absorption is the ultimate goal. All in the name of fun and observation.

The medium is the message.

HISTORY

1989

OG sticker – What started as a joke, became an obsession. First showing up in Providence, Rhode Island, the image quickly spread down the east coast and beyond. To date, over ten million stickers have been proliferated worldwide.

1990

OBEY Campaign - Inspired by John Carpenter's cult classic film They Live, the slogan OBEY was adopted to accompany the image. "It was totally campy, but I really liked the subversive elements of it, how people are slaves to consumerism because everything is glossy on the surface."

1995

OBEY Icon Face - Shepard stylizes the icon face evolving away from the OG sticker. Influenced by George Orwell's "Big Brother" image, the streamlined graphic approach of the Russian Constructivist poster, and Barbara Kruger's use of font and color, a new phase of the story emerges.

1995

Subliminal Projects – A multi-functional project space and gallery established by Shepard, skateboarder Blaize Blouin, and designer and DJ Alfred Hawkins as a way to introduce skateboard culture and design to the art world. Established on the east coast but eventually settling in LA, Subliminal Projects remains a space that champions emerging artists.

1996

East to West – Shepard Fairey closes screen printing shop in Providence, Rhode Island, and moves to San Diego, California to pursue graphic design and art.

1998

Burgeoning gallery career - Shepard's work begins to receive recognition on larger scale. Street art begins to build relevance amongst fans and collectors, opening up avenues in fine art galleries and other outlets.

2000

OBEY Clothing - Making OBEY T-shirts throughout his career, Shepard partners to expand the reach of his images on clothing. As a populist in nature, the idea to spread his message further through a new medium is launched.

2003

Studio Number One is founded by Shepard and Amanda Fairey – Deeply embedded with Fairey's DNA, Studio Number One design studio challenges how people think about their surroundings through bold marketing and advertising

2004

Swindle Magazine - Partnering with Roger Gastman, the magazine featured pop culture and lifestyle content around music, fashion, and the arts. Covers included the likes of Henry Rollins, Banksy, Twist, and more.

2006

Supply & Demand: The Art of Shepard Fairey is published, a retrospective look at Shepard's career to that point. In its third printing, the book covers his work to date in addition to essays and commentary from Fairey's contemporaries and those around in the early years.

2007

OBEY Awareness - OBEY Clothing launches the Awareness Campaign supporting non-profits through the production of T-shirts and donation of funds to organizations that fit the ideals and messaging of the brand.

2008

HOPE Poster – Motivated by his own civic responsibility, Shepard uses his skills to create a poster illustration of then-presidential candidate Barack Obama with the word HOPE underneath. The image becomes the predominately recognized image of the campaign, eventually being inducted into the National Portrait Gallery in Washington.

2010

Mayday – The final gallery show at Deitch Projects in Lower Manhattan, Mayday was an exhibition of primarily portraits of revolutionaries in the way of artists, musicians, and political activists.

2010

Exit Through The Giftshop – Shepard is heavily featured in the documentary by his friend, renowned street artist, Banksy. The film anchors street art in the culture of the day.

2015

OBEY Clothing Ideals – wanting to improve its oversight in sourcing and manufacturing, OBEY Clothing starts working with Fair Trade in addition to resourcing more organic, recycled and sustainable product through materials and transport. As an ongoing missio to improve, Ideals is an open-ended project that evolves as new opportunities become available. (2021 GOTS certification).

2017

We The People, Women's March – In collaboration with Amplfier, Shepard creatives iconic protest art with messages including "Defend Dignity," "Greater Than Fear," and "Protect Each Other" celebrating and lifting up marginalized people.

2017

OBEY Giant Documentary - Hulu releases a documentary film, OBEY Giant: The Art and Dissent of Shepard Fairey on the life and career of Shepard, spanning the nearly 30 years of his career.

2017

DAMAGED - In conjunction with Library Street Collective, the DAMAGED exhibition launches in LA. The show focuses primarily on critical issues in society. As Shepard states, "DAMAGED is an honest diagnosis, but diagnosis is the first step to recognizing and solving problems."

2019

Facing The Giant – 3 Decades of Dissent celebrates 30 Years of OBEY. The show highlights a number of distinct works from each of the 3 decades of Shepard's OBEY art campaign repurposed or offered in a new format.

2019

100th Mural – Shepard completes his 100th mural in Providence, Rhode Island. Creativity, Equality, Justice is completed with support and inspiration from non-profit artist space AS220.

SHEPARD FAIREY

ARTIST - ACTIVIST

Shepard Fairey, founder of OBEY and OBEY Clothing, was born in Charleston, South Carolina. He received his Bachelor of Fine Arts in Illustration at the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, Rhode Island. In 1989 he created the "Andre the Giant has a Posse" sticker that transformed into the OBEY GIANT art campaign, with imagery that has changed the way people see art and the urban landscape. After 29 years, his work has evolved into an acclaimed body of art, which includes the 2008 "Hope" portrait of Barack Obama, found at the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery. The artist collaborated with Amplifier in 2017 to create the We The People series recognizable during the Women's Marches and othe rallies around the world in defense of national and global social justice issues.

Fairey' s stickers, guerilla street art presence, and 85 plus public murals are recognizable worldwide. His works are in the permanent collections of the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery, the Boston Institute of Contemporary Art, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, and many others.

Fairey's distinct and recognizable style is unique to him and to OBEY. His lifestyle is the catalyst for all the brand does and the center point of inAuence and inspiration. This section isolates his work, from his classic graphic style to fine art renderings on garments. Each season, Shepard tackles new ideas and adds his special touch that makes OBEY what it is.

We hope you enjoy.

BIGWIG COLLECTION

FALL 2023 | HOLIDAY 2023

The OBEY Bigwig Collection represents the freedom of BIG expression and BIG experimentation both in cut and sew as well as graphics, and art. The energy of the Bigwig collection is a place where a person can experiment, create, play, and mix concepts and garment proporations and graphics that are more fringe and different from the norm. It's curently a home for giant pants and fringe tee graphics paired with more subtle cut and sew pieces that represent the sub cultures and styles we are inspired by.

The ideas are youthful in spirit and energy. They are often eye catching, fringe or experimental in their expression, excecution or proportions. This collection is inspired by decades of youth energy, creative cultures and the spirit of underground scenes both past and present. For OBEY the BIGWIG collection represents the roots we came from and the creative journey we are on. It is a place where we take this creative energy, blend it together and hopefully inspire others.
